

I am writing because I oppose the legislation being considered for lessening Indiana's Telephone Privacy Act. As a person on that list, I value my privacy. I am much more content to have peace in my home than to listen two or three times a day to a salesperson trying to solicit a good or service that either I do not want or need.

Please do not pursue legislation that will lessen this privacy act. Thank you!